RE-ELECTION FOR SENIOR MINISTER (4TH TERM) REV DARRYL CHAN

Dear PSPC family, some of you might know that my older daughter Rachel turned 18 this year. At this milestone, a young person has reached the minimum age to learn how to drive, open an investment account and even consume alcohol. Of course, none of these is relevant for this write-up, if only for the fact that I started my ministry in PSPC in the very same year that she was born. If you had asked me when I first graduated from seminary whether I would still be serving in the same church after 18 years, I would have found that quite unthinkable in an era of high pastoral attrition. Indeed, it is through the grace and mercy of God as well as your prayers and support that 18 years – including 12 years (3 terms) as Senior Minister – have come and gone. Yet despite 18 years being the third longest pastoral tenure in PSPC’s history, I marvel at God’s abundant supply of grace for Rev Benjamin Keasberry’s 32 years (1843 - 1875) and Rev William Murray’s 33 years (1902 - 1935).

Over the years, I have conducted the weddings of couples who used to be Prinsep Lighthouse (PLH) youths when I first started my ministry. Today, they still call me “Uncle” Darryl even though a number of them have gone on to become parents and whose children I have had the privilege to baptise. I have sometimes wondered what all these mean for an extended pastorate. I heard that at the entrance of an ancient church in France, there is a signboard urging people to enter the ministry. It says, “There are just four days in anyone’s life: birth, confirmation, marriage, death. Would you not like to be one who would be needed on all four of those days?” Among the first cohort of infants whom I had baptised, some of them have started to join PLH. In a few years, I will be conducting their confirmation. Perhaps, if I live long enough, I may even conduct their wedding. But I have gotten ahead of myself.

The benefits and challenges as well as hits and misses of an extended pastorate have been well-documented. Just like the promises of a brand-new beginning, it is alluring to dream about how a pastor and a church can have a fresh new start. Yet I have often pictured my situation as though I am walking down a long corridor looking through the windows showcasing other Christian ministries, but with doors which are not meant for me. The only way forward is to continue down that long corridor that is PSPC. Thus, God has called my life, gifted my ministry and bound my vocation to His people here in PSPC – to know three, even four, generations of congregants and their families.

The Session has issued the call for me to undergo re-election as Senior Minister for the 4th term (2025 - 2029). I seek your prayers as this next term will involve the launch, implementation and completion of our Building Renewal Project (BRP). The leadership focus is to have a “Completed Building with Church Unity”, “Renewed Building with Renewed Congregation” and “Larger Premises with Expanded Ministry”. Together as staff, leadership and congregation, let us be “Renewing Our Hearts, Building As One” (PSPC Church Theme 2025). Amen.

Rev Darryl Chan is married to Angeline who is the Principal of Presbyterian High School. An educator at heart, she teaches English to domestic helpers in the HELLO Class. Their daughters, Rachel and Rebecca, are in the PLH. For psycho-spiritual wellbeing, they are not brought up as the stereotypical PKs (Pastor’s Kids) or even Pastor’s and Principal’s Kids. Instead, they are raised as normal teenagers, with a normal childhood, in a normal family, by normal parents.

RE-ELECTION FOR ASSOCIATE MINISTER (2ND TERM) REV CHEAM WAN XIAN

Rev Cheam Wan Xian came to know the Lord Jesus Christ at the age of 12 and first sensed her calling to full-time ministry in her youth. She underwent theological training at Singapore Bible College (SBC) and graduated with a Master of Divinity (MDiv). Wan Xian is married to Rev Paul Tong and they have an adult daughter, Tong Xu Han.

PSPC Chinese Service

It was in 2016 that Rev Wan Xian was approached by Rev Darryl to come over to PSPC as a volunteer to help start the Mandarin Service. In 2017, she joined the PSPC Pastoral Team and continued to prepare the Chinese Ministry to begin the Mandarin Service which was inaugurated on 7 January 2018.

Rev Wan Xian's primary responsibilities are the preaching of the word of God, coordinating the preaching calendar, pastoral and congregational care, evangelism and outreach, and serve together with the Core Team to provide leadership for the overall health and direction of the Chinese Ministry. She is also the Pastoral Advisor for Sarah Active Ageing Centre (SAAC). Rev Wan Xian is also presently a member of the Synod Women's Council.

Rev Wan Xian licensing was completed and accepted by the English Presbytery Exco on 19 May 2021. PSPC leadership had the privilege to witness her taking the Licentiate Pledge on 1 June 2021. She was ordained to the Ministry of Word and Sacrament and installed as PSPC Associate Minister on 11 September 2021.

Re-election as PSPC Associate Minister

In recognition of her faithful and effective ministry, PSPC Session issued the call to Rev Wan Xian to stand for re-election as Associate Minister to continue to grow the Mandarin Service. Together with the Core Team, she will continue to shepherd the flock, reach out to Chinese speaking seekers who have not yet had the opportunity to hear and believe the Good News of Jesus Christ.

RE-ELECTION FOR ELDERSHIP (2ND TERM)

ELD SIM KANG

Dear PSPC members,

Greetings in the Lord. I am honoured to be nominated for re-election as a Session Elder.

I accepted Christ when I was pursuing undergraduate studies in Melbourne more than 30 years ago through the ministry of the Overseas Christian Fellowship (OCF). Since my return to Singapore in 1994, I have been worshipping at Prinsep Street Presbyterian Church with my wife Winnie and subsequently 2 children as well (Sarah and Samuel). Previously, I had the privilege of serving in Prinsep Lighthouse, Annual Thanksgiving Dinner Committee, English Presbytery Executive Committee and as a deacon. Currently, I help out at the Prinsep Cell Group Committee (since 1995) and also conduct the yearly Discipleship Essentials Class together with my wife Winnie (since 2015). My wife and I enjoy reading, attending cell group sessions, walking in the parks, catching up with extended family and friends and travelling.

My prayer for PSPC, especially for this season of our Building Renewal Project, is that we may emulate the example of Christ as He has demonstrated for us, that together we may love as He loves, serve as He serves by washing the feet of the disciples, and be one as the Trinitarian Godhead shows unity amid diversity.

ELECTION FOR DEACONSHIP

(1ST TERM)

SHAUN LEE

Dearest PSPC family,

My name is Shaun Lee and on behalf of my wife Leanne as well as our boys, Owen and Dylan, blessed greetings in the name of our Lord!

I was not born into a Christian family, but like many of us, I've found my spiritual home here at Prinsep. I have been gratefully attending PSPC and joyfully serving our congregation since 2000, becoming a communicant member in 2006.

It's been my honour and privilege to work alongside brothers and sisters in the Believers (Music Ministry), Prinsep Lighthouse (Youth Ministry) and YACHT (Young Adults Ministry) as well as support faith-based events (Church Camp, outreach events, musicals, etc.) in a collaborative effort to grow His church from within and beyond.

I recently completed the Prinsep Internship Programme (PIP) in 2023/2024. Walking that closely with God for 12 months truly refreshed my spirit and realigned my sense of purpose and calling. I am, more than ever, committed to live my life as a full-time missional Christian, and deeply appreciate that all ministry work must be God-breathed, Christ-inspired and Spirit-led.

Hence, I am indeed most grateful and humbled by this nomination to be part of the EDC. I recognise the significance of this office, and the trust placed upon those who have been appointed. I have a passion to lead and love God's people. As such, if elected, I look forward to continue serving Him, and you, dutifully and faithfully in this new capacity.

CHURCH NEWS

1. PSPC Annual Congregational Meeting (ACM) Sunday

All congregants are requested to take note of the following details for PSPC ACM Sunday on 27 April. Further details are in the Notice of ACM in the bulletin.

A. Service Timing

There will only be 1 single combined English service at 8:45am in the Sanctuary (Level 1) and MPH (Level 4). The Mandarin service will be at 9am in the Upper Room (Level 3).

B. Registration

All communicant members are requested to register in the Conference Room (Level 1) to collect the voting slips from 8am - 8:45am.

C. ACM Instructions

- The ACM will start at 10:30am.
- Non-communicant members are welcome to observe the ACM.
- There is a separate ACM livestream link which is posted on the church website (www.pspc.org.sg).
- There will be concurrent children's programme until the end of the ACM.
- All other ministry programmes, including PLH, will be in recess.

2. PSPC Tenebrae Artwork 2025

Situated in the Civic District and among arts institutions, PSPC is a church that celebrates God's gifts of art and music as well as affirms the giftings of artists and musicians. During Holy Week, the PSPC Tenebrae Reflections presented a choral rendition and art exhibition on the theme of "Lamentations at the Cross" so that through arts and music, we can reflect on what Jesus Christ had done for us.

The Art Fellowship is pleased to feature the artwork and reflections of the artists, including our own congregants, Isaac Lim, Andy Choy, The Shepherd's Staff and Diana Chou, in an e-booklet (https://fsc.aflip.in/T2025_ArtExb.html). We hope that this e-booklet will minister and encourage the rest of the congregation.

3. The Messenger

Get to know our 13 new members from the Easter edition of The Messenger (https://fsc.aflip.in/TheMessenger_JanApr2025.html). Limited hardcopies are also available from the ushers' tables.

4. Primary 1 Phase 2B Registration Exercise

Communicant members who wish to apply for the Primary 1 Phase 2B registration to enrol their children in Kuo Chuan Presbyterian Primary School or Pei Hwa Presbyterian Primary School in 2026 may refer to the details on PSPC notice board and contact Veronica Yong (secy@pspc.org.sg) by 11 May.

5. BSF Young Adults Class

A. Seminar on Personal Quiet Time

This seminar aims to equip and inspire believers to meet with God daily through personal quiet time. It will be on 13 May (Tuesday), 8:30pm at PSPC.

B. Mini-Study: All Things New

This is a 3-week study covering Revelation 21:9 - 22:21 and selected passages. The dates are 6, 13 and 20 May (Tuesday), 7:45pm at PSPC.

C. BSF Study for 2025/2026 - People of the Promise: Exile and Return

Our next BSF study beginning August 2025 invites you on a powerful journey through the Old Testament, where God's people were called to build His kingdom in a foreign land. Their story is our story - we, too, are strangers in a broken world, called to build for His glory. As we explore how God equips and positions His people, we're challenged to ask, "Am I building my life for Christ?" This study series reminds us that our time to build is now. The books included in this series include Ezekiel, Daniel, Ezra, Esther, Haggai, Zechariah, Nehemiah, and Malachi. For more information, please refer to website (www.bsfinternational.org/our-studies/exile-and-return).

For more information on the above, or on the BSF class in general, please contact Yue Zhen, the Class Administrator (bsf.spya@gmail.com).

6. Closure of Church Premises

The Church Office will be closed on the following days:

- 1 May (Thursday) - Labour Day
- 3 May (Saturday) - Polling Day

CHRISTIAN CITIZENRY DURING A GENERAL ELECTION

A Pastoral Guidance for Prinsep Street Presbyterian Church (PSPC)

A. PREAMBLE

With the issuance of the Writ of Election, Singapore will be conducting the General Election on 3 May 2025. This pastoral guidance sets out how PSPC congregants can conduct ourselves as Christian citizens in a prayerful, discerning and respectful manner during the General Election.

B. A PRAYERFUL PROCESS

As Christian citizens of the country, we have the responsibility to “seek the welfare of the city... and pray to the Lord on its behalf, for in its welfare you will find your welfare (Jeremiah 29:7).” The GE is an especially significant time to seek the welfare of the country by committing the campaigning process and electoral outcome in our prayers.

C. A DISCERNING PROCESS

The Apostle Paul writes in Romans 13:6, “For because of this you also pay taxes, for the authorities are ministers of God, attending to this very thing.” The nominees are campaigning to be elected as Members of Parliament and Political Office Holders whom Scripture recognises as “ministers of God”. Therefore, we need godly wisdom to discern the calling, character and competence of nominees as we listen to campaign broadcasts and receive house visits so that we elect those who can best uphold and advance the welfare of the country.

D. A RESPECTFUL PROCESS

The Apostle Paul also writes in Romans 13:7, “Pay to all what is owed to them: taxes to whom taxes are owed, revenue to whom revenue is owed, respect to whom respect is owed, honor to whom honor is owed.” A healthy and mature democracy allows the robust debate and contestation of ideas and opinions. In addition to the need for wise discernment, all exchanges of political views should be conducted fairly, truthfully and respectfully, especially with the prevalence of many online postings that may be biased, inaccurate or disrespectful.

E. CONCLUSION

Although Christians may hold onto differing views along the entire political spectrum, we need to remember that we are first and foremost brothers and sisters in God’s family, members of the one body of Christ and united by the Holy Spirit in the bond of peace (cf. Ephesians 4:3). Our spiritual unity precedes, surpasses and outlasts our political differences – “Renewing Our Hearts, Building As One”.

PRAYER MINISTRY

*“You can read all the manuals on prayer and listen to other people pray, but until you begin to pray yourself you will never understand prayer.
It’s like riding a bicycle or swimming: You learn by doing.”*

Luis Palau

Our Ministry

PSPC ACM Sunday (Today) - We uphold our Annual Congregational Meeting in prayer to ask for God to grant us oneness of mind and unity of hearts in discharging our responsibilities of communicant membership so that we can be “Renewing Our Hearts, Building As One”.

Alpha Course - We give thanks to God for the participants who joined the Alpha Course that started last week. We pray that their understanding of God’s truth and experience of God’s love in Christ will be enhanced through the Alpha Course.

Our Family

Rev Ridge and Connie Orr - We give thanks to God for the rest and renewal that Rev Ridge and Connie Orr have received over the past 3 weeks in Singapore. As they prepare to return to the US this week, we pray that God will continue empower them for their outreach and ministry to international students.

Ho Poh Lin (Mother of Susan Seetho/ Mother-in-law of Dn Jerome Lim) - We uphold Mdm Ho in prayer that while she was still in stepdown care for stroke rehabilitation, she has to be warded again for gout treatment. We pray for the relief of her condition and also for the smooth transition to a suitable nursing care facility.

Our World

Singapore General Election 2025 - As Singapore heads to the polls on 3 May for the 14th General Election, we pray that God will raise up political leaders who will lead wisely, uphold justice and serve with integrity, so that this nation will fulfill His purposes.

REFLECTIONS

Stirred, Not Lukewarm: A Wake-Up Call from Laodicea (Revelation 3:14-20)

Late last year, while studying the letters to the seven churches in Revelation 2 and 3, I was struck by how each church received praise followed by correction, except for one. Laodicea received no praise. Jesus could not praise them because they were neither hot nor cold, but lukewarm. He said He would spit them out of His mouth. That image is jarring – Jesus was disgusted by their apathy.

It made me reflect: what is my posture as I serve God? Or in worship? Am I just going through the motion even when serving in ministry? The question hit hard: Am I truly serving Him, or fulfilling obligations?

That sobering thought led me to pause and reflect on PSPC's future: Could the same fate befall PSPC if we grew complacent? I'm not saying that PSPC mirrors Laodicea, but the passage definitely serves as a reminder against settling into spiritual comfort or routine. Jesus longs for hearts on fire, fully alive to His call and purpose.

Laodicea also claimed, "I am rich, I have prospered, and I need nothing." But Jesus exposed their true condition: "wretched, pitiable, poor, blind and naked." That rebuke cut deeply. I've been brought up to be independent, to trust in my abilities and think critically. And I do. That is also what I value.

However, I've come to see how easily confidence can slip into pride – intellectual pride that can be dismissive of other perspectives and make one blind to correction.

On the seven churches, which were major cities and centres of trade during their heydays, where are they today? I believe only ruins remain. The imagery is stark when I visited Ayutthaya (former Siamese capital north of Bangkok) on a recent work trip, and I saw the ruins of the ancient kingdom. The ruins reminded me of the stark fragility of the world we live in, where the seemingly strong and powerful can be reduced to rubble. This is further reinforced when the tour bus passed the tall pile of rubble in Bangkok, which is all that remains of the recent tragic building collapse, where in moments, the modern building collapsed during a powerful earthquake. I reflected if I am resting on my own laurels, bringing the muscle memory of skills from the secular world into my service in church or am I truly being dependent on God? Are we striving to build His kingdom upon the confidence of our own knowledge, skills and resources or are we trusting Him to lead us as a church to further His kingdom and lay the foundation for future generations.

And yet, the beauty of Jesus' message is that instead of condemnation, it's a 100% loving invitation. He invites us to come to Him – to find true riches, to be clothed in righteousness, to see clearly again. He says, "Those whom I love, I reprove and discipline." What grace, that even in our lukewarmness, Jesus still knocks, still calls, still loves. Jesus' words remind me that unless I am convicted of my own sin, I am of no use to Him. To serve effectively, I must first be right with God, and then I must serve in dependence on Him, so that I cannot boast!

Thus, this stirs me. I don't want to live a life of casual faith. I want to be spiritually awake – not out of fear, but in hope. I am thankful that Jesus has called me, saved me and continues to be patient with me. The challenge is how to respond daily – to let Him lead in all things, serving from a heart that truly loves Him. And not to serve out of routine or obligation.

And this was reinforced recently, as Dr Peter Ho preached on Philippians 1 and encouraged us to walk this path of obedience as a community – stirred, not lukewarm – living lives worthy of the One who called us.

"Only let your manner of life be worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that whether I come and see you or am absent, I may hear of you that you are standing firm in one spirit, with one mind striving side by side for the faith of the gospel." (Philippians 1:27)

What would PSPC be like in 10, 20, 50 or 100 years from now? Would we be like the ruins of a city, or would we continue to be a vibrant church and continue to reflect His love and impact those around us positively, pointing them to the great love that He has for us?

As we embark on our Building Renewal Project, it is not just the building we are refreshing but us individually too, we are called to respond, not be lukewarm, and it is my prayer that we are together stirred so that we can be effective together in building a vibrant church that furthers His kingdom today and for future generations.

Thank you, Lord, for calling us out of complacency, and into vibrant, wholehearted faith. Help us stay spiritually awake, responding to Your love with hearts that burn brightly for You. May we not ever grow lukewarm in our walk, but remain passionate, intentional, faithful. Empower us as a PSPC community to stand firm together, striving side by side for Your kingdom. Lead us to reflect Your love and grace in all we do. In Jesus' name, Amen.
