Leader: It is in His righteousness that we dare come before You with our sins, desperately in need of You to relent of Your anger and remove our guilt. Forgive us our acts of disobedience in thoughts, words and actions.

People: Restore us to Your joy by removing the guilt of sin from our consciences. Renew the work of Your Spirit in us; continue His work of transforming us, conforming us to the likeness of Christ.

2. Explore Serving in Girls' Brigade 8th Company

We believe serving is a journey of discovery for both the girls and those who walk alongside them. Hence, the GB 8th Company is inviting you to join us for a chitchat session where you can:

- Learn more about the vision and heart of the ministry.
- Share your own experiences, passions, and hopes.
- Explore together how your gifts might fit into this space.

Our goal is to help you discern whether this ministry is the right fit for you, and to ensure you feel valued and encouraged no matter the outcome. Even if you discover that this particular role isn't the best match, we'll celebrate your willingness to explore and help you consider other ways to serve meaningfully. If you want to find out more, please contact Jess Goh (jessgoh@pspc.org.sg) for a chitchat session. We'd love to meet you and journey together.

6. Angel Tree Project 2026

The Angel Tree Project is an initiative by Prison Fellowship Singapore (PFS), aiming to encourage reconciliation between the incarcerated and their families, through the delivery of letters written by inmates to their families, along with a supermarket gift card.

This year, PSPC has pledged to deliver up to 50 letters and vouchers and is seeking 25 teams of volunteers to assist with this delivery. Home visitation will take place from the end of November to Christmas Day 2026. Individuals and cell groups can sign up using the QR code or online form (<https://tinyurl.com/angeltree2026pspc>) by 25 October.

Contributions to the $7,750 needed for this year's gift cards can be made via PSPC e-giving platform by indicating "Angel Tree Project 2026" or on the offering envelope. Funds raised in excess will be channelled to the Church General Fund. The total collected to date is $1,155.

7. PSPC Thailand Short-Term Mission Trips

The Northern Thailand short-term mission team has been blessed this year with 33 members. Two teams will be sent in December, one to Chiang Rai and one to Chiang Mai. The Chiang Rai team will partner closely with Baan Klang Baptist Church to bring the gospel to various hill tribes. The Chiang Mai team will support Wycliffe in outreach efforts to both the Chiang Mai community and the East Lawa people.

Support the team in prayer and get updates on the trip by joining the WhatsApp channel. Use this link (<https://tinyurl.com/NTmissions-prayer>) or scan the QR code to join!

If the Lord so leads you, please also consider supporting us financially through PSPC's e-giving platform from 20 September till 2 November with "NT26" stated in the remarks. The team needs to raise a total of $49,500 to cover airfares, accommodation, transportation, meals, and outreach programmes. Funds raised in excess will be channelled to the Church General Fund. The total collected to date is $7,546.80.

8. Ladies' Ministry Prayer Link

The Ladies' Ministry Prayer Link invites congregants to submit prayer needs and requests to Dr Eileen Poh (8393 5073). A team of intercessors will uphold these requests in prayer. All prayer requests are kept strictly confidential.

9. Spiritual Formation/Creation Care Ministry - Two Reflective Prayer Exercises

A. A 2-week exercise on “Appreciating God’s World through His Gift of Our Five Senses” (12 - 25 October) – via WhatsApp

This is a 2-week exercise to cultivate the spiritual discipline of Appreciating God’s world through His gift of our five senses. Look at the world around you. What captures your attention? What does it say about God, His character, His creation, you and the people around you? What Scripture verses come to mind? The joy of the Lord comes to us as we get in touch with God’s world through our senses of sight, hearing, smell, taste and touch. For each week, send a photograph taken by you and share your reflection.

B. A 2-week exercise on “Caring for God’s Creation” (2 - 15 November) – via WhatsApp

This is a 2-week exercise to cultivate the spiritual discipline of caring for God’s creation. We shall ponder over how our Christian faith, grounded in theology, influences our lifestyle and our role in creation care. For each week, send a photograph taken by you and share your reflection.

Please sign up by TODAY (4 October). Participants are also encouraged to attend the Morning Quiet Retreat at Rifle Range Nature Park on 10 October (Saturday). INTRODUCTION TO JANIS NG CHINESE MINISTRY STAFF

Shalom! My name is Janis. I come from Sabah, Malaysia, where my home church is the Basel Christian Church of Malaysia (BCCM). BCCM is one of the largest denominational churches in Sabah, with a rich history spanning over 140 years, much like the Presbyterian Church in Singapore.

As a fourth-generation Christian whose great-grandfather was one of the church's founders, I was raised in a home centered on faith. My parents brought all five of us siblings to church from a young age and taught us the joy of serving God. Today, our extended family remains deeply involved in ministry; my late father served as an elder, and my brothers serve as deacons.

By God's grace, my own path of service began in my teenage years through Sunday School, youth fellowship, choir, Girls' Brigade, and worship ministry. It was during this time that I first sensed God calling me into full-time ministry, though I did not yet have the courage to step out.

After I met my husband, Eric, we got married and had our first child. God's call to full-time ministry became clear to both of us. After much prayer and discernment, we took a step of faith in 2001 and Eric entered full-time seminary study, while I studied part-time to be equipped in Christian Counselling.

Following Eric's graduation and the birth of our second child, we began pastoring together while raising our young family. As we pastored, many church members sought someone to listen, walk alongside them, and help them process life's challenges. Through the training I had received in Christian Counselling, together with the foundation of God's Word, I was able to offer intentional, compassionate care to those in need.

In 2019, God led us to Singapore, where I served alongside Eric at a Chinese church. Through every season, God faithfully taught us to trust Him with our ministry, our family, and our future.

What began as a call I once hesitated to answer has become a lifelong journey of trust and surrender. It has taught me that a call to ministry is ultimately not about pursuing a position, but about responding to God's gracious invitation to participate in His work. I deeply look forward to serving our true and living God together with all of you at PSPC!

PRAYER MINISTRY

*“It is not lip-labour that it doth regard, for it is the heart that God looks at,
and that which sincerity looks at, and that which prayer comes from,
if it be that prayer which is accompanied with sincerity.”*

- John Bunyan

Our Ministries

Children’s Day Celebration – God of our children, you love them more than we ever could. Lord, even as our Children’s Ministry co-workers celebrated Children’s Day with our children, we lift every child into your loving hands. We pray for their futures – help them know deeply that they are wonderfully made (Psalm 139:14) and deeply loved by you. Give them peace and confidence in you as they grow in favour with you and with people.

Ministry Planning for 2027 – Lord of the church, we pray for our various ministries and their core teams as they plan for 2027. Give us a clear sense of your wisdom, Lord, as we seek you together. Father in Heaven, as we commit PSPC’s congregants and ministries into your hands, help us grow deeper in your Word, deeper in relationship with you and with one another.

Our Family

New Ministry Staff (Janis Ng) – God our Father in Heaven, we thank you for the provision of a new Ministry Staff, Ms Janis Ng, who joins us to serve with the Chinese Ministry from 6 October. We pray for a smooth transition for Janis, and help our staff team and congregation to welcome her with open arms. Unite our team in heart, mind and spirit, Lord, and bless our work together, so that together we might bear much fruit, strengthen our church body, and glorify your name.

Nepal Mission Team (9 – 17 October) – Lord of the nations, we pray for the nation of Nepal which has suffered much in the recent disaster. We pray for the upcoming Synod Nepal Mission Team as they travel to Nepal from 9 – 17 October, focusing on medical and dental work. In particular, we pray for Dr Sylvia Teo and Sharon Goh as they serve together with other team members. Grant them journey mercies, team unity, and fill them with your love as they minister to the vulnerable and needy.

Eld Yang Soo Suan – Abba Father, we lift Eld Yang Soo Suan into your loving and healing hands as he is hospitalised for a stroke and pneumonia. Grant wisdom to the medical team and bless the work of their hands, O Lord. Give strength and peace for his family and surround them with your presence and comfort.

Our World

International Day of Non-Violence (2 October) – God our loving heavenly Father, your Son, Jesus our Lord, exhorted us, “Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God” (Matthew 5:9). Lord, in an anxious and violent world, help us to be instruments of your peace. Abba Father, we pray for countries, neighbourhoods, schools, workplaces, and communities where tension has become normal. Place wise people in the midst of conflict, and give them patience, courage, and words that open doors of peace.

REFLECTIONS

JOY IN THE LORD

We are now entering the last quarter of the year. How time has flown by! As I look back at the last 9 months, I am reminded of how the year has been filled with decisions, balancing life, leadership, management, ministry, work, people and family/friends. There have been opportunities, challenges, difficult decisions and moments of uncertainty and moments of laughter and joy. At times, it can feel like we are constantly trying to keep all the different areas of our lives in balance while navigating an ever-changing world.

As I reflected on the year so far, I remembered a book I read many years ago and an article I wrote about it. I was struck by how relevant the message still is today. Although circumstances change, challenges may look different and life moves at a different pace, our need for God, anchoring our life on His love for us and our joy in Him remain the same.

The book I referred to is a short book entitled “The Dangerous Duty of Delight – Daring to Make God Your Greatest Desire” by John Piper. As I reflected again on what I had read all those years ago, one thought in particular came back to me — joy in the Lord.

I learned much from that book, but in this reflection, I would like to share just one lesson on joy that struck me from this delightful book by John Piper and also some of my thoughts on the love of God.

First, a statement – We all long for and constantly seek happiness and joy; this is without exception. And we seek and satisfy this longing in various ways: relationships, possessions, achievements, applause, vacations, gadgets, sports etc... but our longing will never be fully satisfied until we see the beauty and splendour of God, receive the love and grace of Christ and experience the presence of the Holy Spirit in our lives.

And perhaps there is something even more fundamental that brings us joy — knowing that we are deeply loved by God. We are His beloved – highly favoured and greatly loved.

Before we achieve anything, before we get everything right, before we accomplish what we think we need to accomplish, God loves us. His love is not dependent on our performance, our success, our circumstances or how well we think we are doing.

What an incredible truth this is.

To know that we are loved by the God who created us, knows us completely and yet chooses to love us is surely one of the greatest sources of joy. We do not have to strive to earn His love. We do not have to prove our worth to Him. In Christ, we are accepted, forgiven and loved. There is such joy and freedom in knowing that we are His and that we are loved.

Second, a question – Is joy the spin-off of obedience?

Some of you may think the answer is “yes” – joy is the result of obedience. Refreshingly, John Piper takes the view that the answer is “No: Joy is part of obedience. It is not a by-product of obedience. It is a part of obedience. Allow me to make this clear before I go further: when I say joy or happiness here, we are talking always about joy and happiness in God.

Many Christians feel uncomfortable to say we are duty bound to pursue joy. They would say – don't pursue joy, pursue obedience. It's like saying, "Don't eat apples, eat fruit." I have heard this said many times, "it's holiness, not happiness that matters." John Piper disagrees with this. I too have reached that same conclusion. Both holiness and happiness matter. I think that you cannot have holiness without happiness and neither can you have happiness without holiness.

C. S. Lewis wrote to a friend, saying, "It is a Christian duty, as you know, for everyone to be as happy as he can." John Piper, quoting C. S. Lewis, then adds, "Yes, it is risky and controversial. But it is strictly true. Maximum happiness, both qualitatively and quantitatively, is precisely what we are duty-bound to pursue."

Let's look at God's Word. In Matthew 5:11-12, Jesus said, "Blessed are you when others revile you and persecute you ... ¹² Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven ..." In John 15:11, Jesus said, "These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full." James, the brother of Jesus, said, "Consider it all joy... when you encounter various trials" (James 1:2). Paul the apostle was "sorrowful yet always rejoicing" and described his ministry and that of his team as being "workers with you for your joy" (2 Corinthians 6:10) and commanded Christians to "Rejoice in the Lord always" (Philippians 4:4).

Let's take a look at the psalmists: Psalm 16:11, "You make known to me the path of life; in your presence there is fullness of joy; at your right hand are pleasures forevermore." Psalm 37:4, "Delight yourself in the Lord." Psalm 32:11, "Be glad in the LORD, and rejoice, O righteous, and shout for joy, all you upright in heart!" Psalm 67:4, "Let the nations be glad and sing for joy ..." Psalm 43:4, "Then I will go to the altar of God, to God my exceeding joy." Psalm 100:2, "Serve the LORD with gladness! Come into his presence with singing!"

Both the Old Testament and New Testament echo the command for us to always be rejoicing and to be filled with joy. Not just "lip-service joy", but joy overflowing in all its fullness in our lives. God desires us to be happy, to be joyful. Happiness and joy in the Lord are part of what it means to be a believer.

And I think there is great joy in knowing whose we are. We belong to God. We are His children. We are His beloved. When we truly understand the immeasurable love and grace of God towards us, it changes the way we see ourselves, our circumstances and even our future. We do not have to live constantly seeking the approval of others, trying to prove ourselves or finding our worth in our achievements. Our identity is already secure in Him.

Perhaps the image of a "stiff-necked, serious, no-nonsense person who thinks desire for our own good and enjoyment of it is a bad thing" is our picture of a holy and 'obedient' Christian. This is certainly not the case and runs contrary to what is clearly taught in the Bible. A person who knows that he or she is deeply loved by God should have every reason to rejoice.

This does not mean that life will always be easy or that we will always feel happy. There will be disappointments, grief, difficult decisions, unanswered questions and seasons when we simply do not understand what God is doing. Joy does not mean that we ignore these realities. Rather, joy in the Lord means that these 'realities' do not have the final word.

Our circumstances may change, but God does not. Our plans may change, but His purposes remain. People may disappoint us, opportunities may close, decisions may become difficult and the future may feel uncertain — but His love for us remains constant.

In this time of uncertainty, challenging economy, insecurity, evil, hostility, stress and confusion, joy expressed and lived out in our lives because of the hope we have in Christ is what the world needs to see and hear.

We who know and have experienced the immeasurable love and grace of God, seen His splendour and power, tasted His goodness and received His mercy must explode and overflow with joy and must share the source of our joy with others.

And perhaps the greatest testimony we can give is this: even in difficult circumstances, I know that I am loved by God. I know that I belong to Him. That knowledge gives us a joy that the world cannot give and circumstances cannot take away. Whatever the world and the enemy throw at us, we can stand against it because the joy of the Lord is our strength.

So, as we enter the last quarter of this year, may we pause and reflect on where we have been looking for our joy, our security and our sense of worth. May we remember that our greatest joy is not found in what we have achieved, what we possess, what others think of us or whether everything in our lives is going according to ‘plan’. Our greatest joy and delight are found in God, in Jesus and in the Holy Spirit.

May I encourage all of us (myself included) to pursue God and make Him our greatest desire and delight. Let us rest in His love, remember that we are His beloved, and allow His joy to overflow in our lives.
