Responsive Reading                      Psalm 138: 1 - 8

- <sup>1</sup>    I give you thanks, O LORD, with my whole heart;
         before the gods I sing your praise;
- <sup>2</sup>    I bow down toward your holy temple and give thanks to your name for your steadfast love and your faithfulness, for you have exalted above all things your name and your word.
- <sup>3</sup>    On the day I called, you answered me;
         my strength of soul you increased.
- <sup>4</sup>    All the kings of the earth shall give you thanks, O LORD,
         for they have heard the words of your mouth,
- <sup>5</sup>    and they shall sing of the ways of the LORD,
         for great is the glory of the LORD.
- <sup>6</sup>    For though the LORD is high, he regards the lowly,
         but the haughty he knows from afar.
- <sup>7</sup>    Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you preserve my life; you stretch out your hand against the wrath of my enemies, and your right hand delivers me.
- <sup>8</sup>    The LORD will fulfill his purpose for me;
         your steadfast love, O LORD, endures forever.
         Do not forsake the work of your hands.

OVERVIEW OF MICAH ⚡ NAHUM

29 AUG 2026
2PM - 4:30PM
ONLINE VIA ZOOM

As the sixth and seventh books, Micah and Nahum are located somewhat at the centre of the twelve Minor Prophets. Chronologically, they date to around the eighth to seventh century BCE, when Assyria was the world's superpower. These two books (including the fifth, Jonah) are interested in Assyria, which averted God's judgment in the book of Jonah (~760 BCE).

Yet Assyria's arrogance, brutality, and violence continued to grow.

The prophet Micah (740-698 BCE) prophesied against Samaria and Jerusalem for social injustice, spiritual corruption, and saw the former's destruction in 722 BCE. Assyria also made many cities in the Levant, including Judah, vassal states. The book of Nahum, set about half a century later (663-612 BCE), was addressed to Judah and proclaimed YHWH's impending judgment on Assyria and her inescapable destruction.

The dynamics of intertwining prophetic activities and historical developments in these books highlight an important point: We have a good God who is in control of world history and watches over His people. These prophets demonstrate that YHWH is an all-powerful God who loves justice and will not leave the guilty unpunished. He is the good shepherd who will rescue and gather His flock, draw nations to Zion, and bring about lasting peace one day. As such, these books call on God's people to trust, hope, and depend on YHWH. They tell us that humanity's ultimate hope lies in a sovereign God who upholds justice and offers love and refuge to all who seek Him.

PRAYER MINISTRY

*“You can read all the manuals on prayer and listen to other people pray, but until you begin to pray yourself you will never understand prayer.
It’s like riding a bicycle or swimming: You learn by doing.”*

- Luis Palau

Our Ministries

Northern Thailand Mission Team Training – Father, we thank You for those who have answered Your call to the Northern Thailand mission trips this December. Strengthen them as they faithfully attend the weekly training. Give them strength, wisdom, love, unity, and perseverance. Go with them each day as they prepare to serve You in Chiang Mai and Chiang Rai.

Our Family

Koh Tse Yuen – Almighty God, we thank You for Koh Tse Yuen’s three years of ministry with Wycliffe Thailand as well as for the prayers and support of brothers and sisters in Christ. We pray for wisdom and love as he teaches, refresh and strengthen him spiritually, and bless him with precious family time during his time in Singapore.

Holy Matrimony – Loving God, we rejoice with Caleb Lee and Esther Ong as they were united in holy matrimony on 22 August. We pray that they will build their marriage on the foundation of God’s Word, walking in faith, joy, unity, and Your enduring love every day.

Peter Lim – Abba Father, we lift Peter Lim to You. As he completes his last radiotherapy session, we pray for Your grace to bring quick healing and restoration. Surround Peter, Lydia and Sophia with Your strength, courage, and presence in the days ahead.

Susan Leong – Lord, we remember Susan Leong in prayer. We ask for Your Spirit to sustain her as she undergoes rehabilitation to regain her mobility. Strengthen her physically, emotionally and spiritually during this journey of recovery.

Bereavement:

- The late Mdm Alice Heng Guek Khim
- The late Mdm Thien Kui Yin (Grandmother of Pr Janice Lee)

We uphold the families of Mdm Heng and Mdm Thien in prayer following their passing on 17 August. May God grant them His tender comfort and abiding peace during their bereavement.

Our World

Philippines – Father, we lift up the school and community in the Philippines affected by the recent shooting. May You comfort the grieving families, heal the injured, and protect every student and teacher. Grant the leaders wisdom, discernment, and courage as they respond. Let your peace and hope prevail in every school and community.
